

Missing Person's Report: Emerging Market Advisor

Description

The Emerging Market Advisor position with Master Networks Headquarters is responsible for supporting new growth areas by advising and coaching members to build and grow chapters.

To be successful in this position, this person will need to work independently to meet deadlines, while collaborating with other team members. Strong communication skills and a follow up plan to track leads and progress toward goals is required. Travel to our new markets will be required.

We are a growing company and work in a fast-paced environment. Speed of implementation is our motto! We rely on collaboration and team work along with independence, to complete our tasks and reach goals.

Responsibilities

There are three major areas of responsibility:

1. Use leads to identify interest in non-developed markets.
 - ✓ Follow up on leads provided by Master Networks
 - ✓ Use networking to create leads in non-developed areas
 - ✓ Evaluate the leads to identify members that will launch a chapter.
2. Follow Master Networks' models to launch and grow chapters.
 - ✓ Coach members on the models and processes to launch a new chapter.
 - ✓ Advise and support members as they grow their chapters.
3. Identify talent
 - ✓ Identify leaders that can become Success Coaches to advise chapters locally.

Compensation

Base plus commission.

Location

All locations.

Click here to apply!